R., secured it for twenty cents an acre, less Mr. Dewdney realizing that the lands were worth $1.50 an acre, insisted on this price, which was finally agreed to by Sir John's Colonization Company.

The Modus Vivendi.

OTTAWA, 25.—There is no truth in the widely circulated reports that Canada has decided to abandon the modus vivendi in connection with the fisheries treaty, negotiated at Washington last year. Hon. C. H. Tupper Minister of Marine and Fisheries, said, "The total number of licenses issued to American vessels, by the Dominion Government, exceeded forty." A majority expired at the end of the calendar year. The first batch issued was made good for one year from the date issued. These latter are still in operation and will be respected. The Government has simply instructed the collectors not to issue new licenses, because no decision as to the future policy has been arrived at.

Uncle Sam.

MONTREAL, 24.—The inaugural dinner of the Montreal Board of Trade was held at the Windsor Hotel last night, and was altogether a most brilliant affair. There were nearly five hundred guests present, and the utmost enthusiasm prevailed. Senator Drummond, the president of the Board presided, and among the guests were the Governor-General, Sir John Macdonald, Sir Hector Langevin, Sir A. P. Caron, Hon. Messrs. Foster and Costigan and others. After the loyal toasts were proposed and heartily drunk, the toast "The Governor-General" was proposed, to which His Excellency replied. He spoke of the influence of the Board of Trade exercised and especially that of Montreal, referred to the future of Canada, of which he said he would not speak, for it was not his province to enter into politics. He remarked of our neighbors to the south he had the highest respect and admired them for their energy and ability, and their determination to have their own way. He would point out though, that in some cases such an action was impossible. He paid a high tribute to the unanimity with which Canadians worked for the future and progress of their country.

Sir John Macdonald and the other members of the Government present also responded to toasts.

Phelps Banquetted.

A letter was read from John Bright's son, who wrote that his father's health was steadily improving and that his general condition was very much better than a month ago.

Boulanger is Content.

LONDON, 29.—The completeness of General Boulanger's triumph has curiously a quieting effect upon Paris bourse. The market has been steady all day and financiers generally believe it will shortly be stronger than for some time past. The bulk of public and press opinions commenting on the elections favor the belief that Boulanger is perfectly satisfied with the extent of his political strength and is content for the present with the disclosure of it and will remain quiet, and calmly await the drift of events.

Germans and Arabs Fight.

ZANZIBAR, 28.—An engagement took place at Dar Essalam Friday, resulting in the defeat of the Arabs, many of whom were killed during the fight. The first lieutenant of the German warship "Sophie" was killed by sun stroke. The defeat of the Arabs renders the position of the captured missionaries still more dangerous.

Missionaries Murdered.

ZANZIBAR, 26.—News comes from the mainland that the Rev. Mr. Brooks, the English missionary and sixteen assistants and servants belonging to the mission have been murdered by Arabs, and blacks under their command. The mission was located at Saana, opposite this island, which had been bombarded by German ships. It is thought the massacre was in revenge for that act. It has created an immense sensation here.

G. T. E. and C. P. R.

LONDON, 28.—The Grand Trunk directors are sending the proprietors for signature, a long petition to the Dominion Government protesting against the government supporting and assisting by pecuniary grants, lines of railway which duplicate and compete with existing lines. The petition says the Grand Trunk welcomed the initial government promotion of the Canadian Pacific, but regrets the use of government money and influence to aid the Canadian Pacific to compete by extending lines in older Canada, and urges the government to act impartially between the two railways. The issue of this petition is taken to show that the attempted reconciliation has failed except for the agreement which is understood to have been closed for the exchange of business at North Bay, and submission of disputes arising therefrom to Albert Fink.

Batons vs. Stones.

DUBLIN, 24.—When the case for the Crown had been presented, Healy, on behalf of the defendant, applied for subpoenas for Lord Salisbury and Mr. Balfour, both of whom, he asserted, had made speeches similar to those of O'Brien. The court refused to issue the desired subpoenas. The spectators in the court room received the decision with murmurs and the magistrates ordered the galleries cleared. While this was being done O'Brien exclaimed, "I'll clear out also," and started for the door. A magistrate shouted "stop him", and a constable grabbed O'Brien. After a sharp struggle O'Brien, with the aid of some spectators, managed to reach the street with no worse than a torn coat. An immense crowd escorted him through the town. The police used their batons freely upon the people who responded with stones and sticks. During the row O'Brien was struck violently in the breast with a rifle stick. Scores of persons were injured. The court issued a warrant for the arrest of O'Brien, then adjourned. The police with fixed bayonets are patrolling the streets. Twenty persons received bayonet thrusts and some are dangerously wounded. At least 40 others were more or less seriously injured by the batons of the police. Many of the police are in hospital.

Riot in Paris.

PARIS, 28.—Every quarter of Paris was enlivened last evening by frequent street brawls between supporters and opponents of General Boulanger. The most violent encounter took place on Mont Martre, where a number of persons were wounded. The police interfered and arrested several ringleaders. Another serious collision occurred in Faubourg du Temple where many persons were injured. At several of the electoral meetings there were scenes of great disorder. Bands of men and ladies singing the "Marseilles" and Boulanger songs paraded the boulevards until a late hour. Today opened fine and at an early hour the streets began to fill with people. At noon the electors were thronging by thousands the 265 balloting stations. The Boulangerists were everywhere first at the voting places and displayed the greatest confidence. Their success is complete. Returns show the following results: Boulanger, 244,070; Jacques, 162,520; Boile, 16,700; other candidates, 10,358. Members of the government are astounded at the result. The Boulangerists predict the immediate fall of the Floquet ministry, dissolution of parliament and a general election in March. Boulanger will resign his seat, retaining that for the Nord department.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 30, 1889.

THE GOVERNOR'S RECEPTION.

That the people of the town have so readily taken up the suggestion to do something towards expressing their esteem for the present Governor of the Territories, is cause for congratulation. His Honor, already acquainted with Calgary, and since his installation in the important office he now holds, he has manifested a keen interest in its welfare. He is an enthusiastic admirer of Calgary. If the present programme for entertaining His Honor can be carried out, Mr. Royal will be more impressed than ever with the public spirit and patriotism of the Calgary people, and this is worth while making an effort to accomplish.

Mr. Royal is a man a can unite in honoring. Distinguished in the realm of letters, he has contributed his part to the building up of the glorious French literature of Canada, of which all classes of learned Canadians have every reason to feel proud; a consistent friend of education, he performed yeoman's service in the interests of education in Manitoba, and he is doing and is going to do as good work for the same cause in the Territories, before he quits the gubernatorial chair. Then His Honor deserves credit for his long service of devotion to Canada, as a public man.

Apart then altogether from the consideration that His Honor is coming to pay Calgary his first official visit as the representative of Her Majesty, our people have good cause for honoring Mr. Royal for the past services he has rendered to the Dominion, and in doing this they can feel that they are doing honor to themselves.

BLACK LEG.

Incipient outbreaks of anthrax or black leg appear to have been quite numerous last autumn and the papers all through the United States and Canada are devoting attention to the disease. The Montreal Witness publishes the following interesting information on this subject:

"Blackleg is a very common form of anthrax, most prevalent during summer and autumn, rarely seen during winter. It is generally seen when young animals are thriving rapidly on rich grasses—attacks the best and most plethoric. In many instances no premonitory signs may be seen, the animal may be found dead; at other times they are seen to separate from the herd, are found unable to move, or at all events having nearly lost power of motion on one quarter which is swollen, and if rubbed a crackling noise is produced, the part is very painful, the pulse quick and weak, the temperature at first high, rapidly falls, and death ensues within a few hours, the animal usually dying in convulsions. When the skin is removed the affected quarter is black and gangrenous, and the blood teems with the bacilli or micro-organisms characteristic of the disease, to be seen only by microscopic examination. We know of no cure. Pasture has succeeded in preventing it by inoculation with cultivated virus; its effects only last a year, however. It should be clearly understood by stock-breeders that every carcass of an animal which has died of anthrax becomes a source of danger for years (perhaps fifty or more), by the extraordinary vitality of the spores of these organisms which find their way to the surface, it may be in the water course from a spring near the grave, it may be by the upturning of the soil in ploughing, digging, by earth worms and other means, and these spores entering a living body in air, food or water reproduces themselves in the blood and with such destructive effects as to kill the animal in some cases as if struck by lightning, and in most within a few hours. Hence it is the duty of every stock owner to burn the bodies of every animal which dies of anthrax, and bury the ashes deeply in dry soil after being well mixed with lime."

ALBERTA HORSES FOR THE ARMY.

Some of our ranchers are devoting attention to the raising of horses for the Imperial Army. It is a pity that more are not doing so. It is difficult to form an estimate of the vast market offered our raisers of horses in supplying the army with remounts. The London Canadian Gazette publishes an editorial paragraph, which forcibly brings the truth of this home. The Gazette says:—"Canadians who look forward to the time when the British War Office will turn to Canada for a regular supply of army remounts may find satisfaction in the reports just made to the Imperial authorities for the past year. From these it appears that, though considerable efforts have been made to increase the reserve of horses for army purposes, the stock of animals actually trained as cavalry troopers has not been augmented during the past year. At the beginning of the year it was reported that during 1887 a thousand horses had been added to the cavalry requirements, and that addition has been maintained; but the present stock of trained and training animals is still not sufficient to mount two thirds of the men." To command this market our horse breeders must devote their attention to horses of a heavier class, than those generally produced here. With horses of the heavier class, our ranchers need never go a begging for buyers as long as there is a British army, and that will be for a long while yet.

LICENSE VS. PROHIBITION.

The Canada Citizen, the nickel plated, copper bottomed organ of the prohibition party in Canada, dashes off the following:—"A license law is a curse. A licensed liquor shop is worse than an illicit groggery. It would be better to have liquor sold in dives and dens than to have it sold in respectable bar-rooms."

If a license law is a curse, how much greater a curse is a prohibitory law. It is universally admitted that the liquor traffic is a curse, but it cannot be stopped, and will not be stopped until moral training and self restraint gets the mastery over the present depraved tastes of mankind. All bumbling being set aside, the present burning temperance question narrows itself down to the question: "Which is most conducive to temperance, a high license system or prohibition?"

An answer, in the light of actual experience is so simple that it is surprising there should be any difference of opinion on this subject. Prohibition has been a failure in Vermont, Maine, and elsewhere in Canada, which have adopted the Scott Act, in the Territories or elsewhere else it has been tried.

High license is proving a complete success in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Toronto and wherever it has been tried.

It is unnecessary to point out, which side of the question has the best of it. What nonsense, however, to dismiss the claims of high license to recognition as a regulator of the liquor traffic by the bigotted description "it is a curse!"

FUTURE OF OUR CATTLE TRADE.

Whatever doubts may be held as to the success of the Alberta cattle export trade to Great Britain, the best authorities in England have every confidence in the future of this trade. The "Meat Trade's Journal," recently published a review of the year's cattle trade, and had the following to say about the Alberta cattle:

"Another noteworthy matter deserving of special attention was the North-western range cattle shipped to Liverpool by the Oxley Range Company. The first consignment was unfortunate in many ways, the steamer encountering terrific gales, which coupled with her natural slowness, protracted the voyage eight or nine days beyond the usual period. At the time of landing the markets were in a depressed condition, the result of exceptionally heavy offerings of secondary classes. It was, therefore, a case of forcing sales, and the first returns we believe were simply ruinous. Succeeding shipments fared somewhat better, the most successful probably, being that to Glasgow ex Carthaginian. It is stated that those were landed in capital condition, and as there were States cattle on hand, sales were easily made at good prices. In connection with this consignment, it is said that they were supplied with a special grain mixture which—unlike their predecessors—they partook of freely while on board ship. To this fact their plump condition may be wholly attributed, as well as the other fact that the carcasses were free from the fiery, or grassy color, considered so objectionable on this side. We are, therefore, led to believe that with care and attention on the way, and a better knowledge of the feeding stuffs to use, there is every possibility of these western cattle becoming an acceptable addition to our foreign exports."

In spite of what crakers may say to the contrary, last years cattle shipments from Calgary, have proved beyond the shadow of a doubt that the raising of cattle in Alberta for shipment to England can be made a profitable industry. It must be evident, however, to those who give any attention to the matter, that if our ranchers are to derive the full benefit of this enterprise, Alberta's beef will have to be shipped across the continent as dead meat. The system of shipping cattle to Montreal on the hoof with its extra expenses, connected with attendants, feeding, debarkation, for rest etc., is really ridiculously extravagant; and the fact that notwithstanding this there is a profit in the trade for the stock raisers, augurs well a the more complete success, when the more economical system of shipping our beef as dead meat, comes into vogue. This system must certainly be adopted soon now, and the people of Calgary should see to it, that this town hall retain its character as the Chicago of the Northwest, by establishing the necessary slaughter and packing houses, to command this trade of the future.

ENGLAND AND THE UNITED STATES.

Although it is sincerely to be hoped that the Samoan difficulty will not result in war, the arbitrary action of Germany in dealing with the natives has caused great indignation in the United States and England. The position of affairs, generally misunderstood, is this:—Great Britain, Germany and the United States, entered into a treaty to guarantee the natives of Samoa, their independence, and to insist that the new State should be kept free from outside interference. The suddenly developed ambition of Germany to establish colonies in the different parts of the world has, however, led Germany to interfere very considerably with the domestic affairs of the Samoans. This interference dividing the Samoan population, led to civil war. The German men-of-war on that station took sides with one party, and got roughly handled for their trouble. To attempt to overcome the hostile party, the German vessels bombarded several native towns and destroyed the property therein of British and American residents. Insult was added to injury, and the Union Jack and the Stars and Stripes set at defiance, in spite of protests. Both Great Britain and the United States have sent ships to the scene of trouble, and it is difficult to say what the result will be.

Whatever the upshot of this excitement may be, all those of British extraction must rejoice in the one result already attained. England and the United States have pushed aside the little differences set up by interested politicians, and have taken a firm stand together to protest against this glaring breach of faith on the part of Germany. The two great Anglo-Saxon nations have risen superior to narrow prejudices and show to the world that when a question of justice and good faith is at stake, they can be depended upon to act in concert. Blood is thicker than water, and it only needs a common injustice to completely unite the public sentiments of the two countries and show that after all, the Anglo-Saxon race is one people. Together Uncle Sam and John Bull can thrash creation, and the sooner there is a complete good fellowship and lasting alliance between the two countries, the sooner shall we see that time when swords shall be turned into ploughshares. An Anglo-Saxon Confederacy would be an international empire, whose decisions no nation would dare to dispute.

CALGARY WELCOMES THE GOVERNOR.

His Honor Makes a Most Speech in Reply to the Corporation Address.

Governor Royal has been heartily welcomed to Calgary, and in reply to the welcome extended to him by the representatives of the people in the Town Council, has delivered an address in which he expresses unlimited confidence in the future of the town. The members of the council proceeded in a body to Mr. Justice Rouleau's residence on Saturday and there, through the mayor, presented the following address to the Governor:

To the Hon. Joseph Royal, L.L.D., &c., &c., Lieut.-Governor of the N.W.T.

HONORABLE SIR:

We, the Mayor and Council of the Corporation of the Town of Calgary, representing the electorate of this young and flourishing Municipality, take great pleasure in embracing the opportunity of this first official visit to our town, to present you with a congratulatory address.

It is manifestly the duty of every true and loyal subject to respect the official possitions which are created under our form of Government, and it is also our duty to honor and respect the persons occupying those positions, when we believe them entirely fitted for such office.

Being confident, Sir, from your long experience in the Northwest, and your well earned reputation for the administration of public affairs, that you bring to the office of Lieutenant-Governor all the qualifications that are requisite; believing also that the functions of your office will be administered in the future as ably as they have been since your inauguration, for the progress, advancement and welfare of these Territories; we therefore take this opportunity as a fitting occasion to present you with this address, as an evidence of our confidence and esteem.

In accepting this address, we trust Your Honor will fully appreciate our sincerity of purpose, and always bear in mind such interests as will tend to develop the growth and prosperity of our Municipality, together with those of the vast Territories over which in Divine Providence you have been called to rule. We therefore welcome you to our town, and trust that your short stay in our midst may be an agreeable one.

Calgary, Alta., January 16th, 1889.
D. W. MARSH,
Mayor

WESLEY F. ORR,
G. C. KING,
A. GRANT,
J. G. FITZGERALD,
J. BARNKMAN,
GEORGE MURDOCH,
Councillors

His Honor replied as follows:—
MR. MAYOR AND GENTLEMEN:

Accept my sincere thanks for your kind welcome into your flourishing locality.

Of all the rising towns in the Northwest Territories, Calgary occupies a most enviable position, and I am glad to know, that the probability of the construction of a railway north will make its future prospect a solid and brilliant one.

Calgary seems to be the distributing point of the vast natural wealth of this immense district, to insure such a destiny by a careful, judicious and energetic policy, is the sacred duty of yourselves. Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the council, and of the business men of your beautiful town, in that work you have my best wishes.

The terms of your kind address, confirm my knowledge of the loyalty of the citizens of Calgary. Permit me to say that in the discharge of my duties as Lieut.-Governor of the Northwest Territories, in dealing with the progress and welfare of the country, I need loyal and hearty co-operation of every citizen. Let us work together, every one in his own sphere of action, in the development and growth and prosperity of our common country; and I feel sure that Canada will be proud of our success. It is with great pleasure that I have come to your town, and I am sure that my recollection will be of the most pleasant character.

I again thank you, Mr. Mayor and gentlemen, for your cordial address of welcome.

Calgary, 29th Jan'y, '89

Before leaving a short time was spent in pleasant conversation with His Honor.

In the evening His Honor attended the races at the Star Kink. Yesterday morning he attended mass at the Roman Catholic Church, when in the course of a forcible sermon Rev. Father Andre welcomed the Governor to Calgary as the representative of "Our Gracious Lady the Queen, whom all all classes of delight to honor." Prayers for His Honor were offered in the other churches, at the Church of the Redeemer the Lieutenant-Governor's name being linked with that of His Excellency in the prayer for the Governor-General.

A number of citizens, most of them previously acquainted with His Honor, paid their respects yesterday afternoon.

This morning His Honor paid a visit to the Father Lacombe schools, conducted by the Rev. Sisters of the Sacred Heart, and was presented with two carefully and beautifully prepared addresses by the Sisters, one in French and the other in English. His Honor, was exceedingly well pleased with the fine condition in which he found the school, and the recitations, singing and piano performances of the children, and was most felicitous in his reply to the addresses. Judge Rouleau, Dr. Pare, John Lineham, M.L.A., ex-mayor Shelton and the clergy of the mission were present. At 11 a. m. His Honor, accompanied by Judge Rouleau, visited the public schools of the town. There was not a large number of visitors present, there having been no previous understanding as to the hour at which the visit would be made. The head teacher, Mr. Short, and his staff though taken unawares, made a very good showing of the prosperous condition of the school. Mr. James Reilly, chairman of the trustees, was present and explained that a change of teachers had lately been made, and that the new staff had not yet got fully into working order. His Honor expressed himself as highly pleased with the order and progress manifested in the different branches of the school.

Besides visiting the several schools, His Honor drove round to the various places where public money had been expended and government works are now going on. Namely, Dewdney bridge, across the Elbow and the grading on the mission hill, the Elbow bridge on Atlantic Avenue, the Langevin bridge across the Bow river at the foot of Dewdney street, the grading on Barwin's mill, the cut bank along the north side of the Bow river and the Bow Marsh bridge across the Bow river. He also took a hurried glance at the new N. W. M. P. barracks and the site and material on the ground for Calgary's new court house.

Calgary Institute.

The Calgary Institute will be opened at seven o'clock sharp, this evening. The members are requested to meet at the institute at a quarter to seven to receive His Honor. The proceedings will be very brief. The address of the Institute will be presented to the Governor at the Opera House and His Honor will deliver his reply there.

The Reception.

The Reception this evening at the Royal Opera House will commence shortly after seven and will conclude about a quarter to nine. The splendid brass band of "E" Division N. W. M. P. will be present and help to enliven the proceedings with a programme of its choicest music. Several of the town's leading singers will also contribute music. The hall has been decorated for the occasion. The entertainment will partake of the joint nature of a levee and conversation. After replying to the Institute address, His Honor and Madame Rouleau will take their places at the left of the hall and receive all those anxious to be presented. His Honor's aide-de-camp, with a member of the committee will be in attendance to receive the cards of those presented and announce the names. The chairs have been arranged in groups allowing freedom for promenaders and affording every facility for sociable intercourse. In reply to enquiries we might say that evening dress (not full dress) will be "en regle."

The Banquet.

The citizens banquet to the Governor will take place at a quarter to nine this evening at the Windsor Hotel. Judging from the large number of tickets sold, this will be one of the largest attended banquets ever held in Calgary. A lengthy toast list has been prepared; and it is to be hoped that short speeches will be the order.

[From Tuesday's Daily.] GOVERNOR ROYAL.

Opens the Institute, Holds a Levee and Attends the Citizens Banquet in his Honor.

Lieut.-Governor Royal left for Regina by this morning's express, after spending a particularly busy night. Seven o'clock found his Honor at the Calgary Institute, where a number of the members had assembled to request him to formally open the institution. His Honor was received by the President of the Institute, Mr. A. K. Shelton and conducted to the general reading room. Mr. Shelton briefly explained the objects of the Institute and announced that it had been decided to present His Honor with the address from the Institute at the Royal Opera House. Mr. Royal then formally declared the Institute open, and in doing so delivered a neat extemporaneous address, in which he expressed his hearty sympathy with the objects of the institute. He remarked that it was well that Calgary, as the metropolis of the Territories, the chief centre of population, enterprise and wealth, should take the lead in the establishment of institutions for the intellectual culture of the public.

After being introduced to those present His Honor drove direct to the Royal Opera House, to hold the public levee, for which arrangements had been made by the citizens reception committee. The hall had been decorated with hunting, flags and flowers and a dais for His Honor and Madame Rouleau, His Honor's hostess fitted up against the west wall. The fine band of "E" Division N.W.M.P. was stationed on the stage and as His Honor accompanied by Capt. Draynor, A.D.C., and the members of the reception committee entered, struck up the National Anthem. The proceedings opened with the reading of

by Mr. Shelton. The address was as follows:—

To His Honor, the Honorable Joseph Royal, L. L. D., etc., Lieutenant Governor N. W. T.

SIR,—The members of the Calgary Institute, which has just been formed, beg to congratulate your Honor upon assuming the responsible position to which you have been called and tender our hearty welcome to you on your Honor's first official visit to our town. We desire to express our gratitude for the kindness with which you have consented to open this our library and reading room. We feel sure that everything which tends to promote the welfare of our community in the Northwest is a matter of interest to you. We believe that the Calgary Institute will undoubtedly contribute both intellectually and socially to the benefit of the people of this district. Our first start is a small one, but promising.

We are beginning in a humble way; but it is with the hope that when next Your Honor visits us, it will be to see the infant just born, grown to a vigorous and healthy manhood, and our institute established as a real power for good in our midst.

We feel confident that anything tending towards the attainment of the objects which the promoters of the Institute have in view will meet with Your Honor's sympathy and cordial co-operation and we have this hope upon the fact that Your Honor by common acknowledgment occupies an enviable position in the world of letters through your own distinguished career and acknowledged success in the arena of Canadian literature. Wishing Your Honor every success and prosperity in the honorable position to which you have the honor to be called. We have the honor to be your obedient servants, the members of the Calgary Institute.

per A. E. SHELTON,
President.

His Honor read a lengthy reply, expressing his sympathy with the projectors of the Institute and urging them to persevere. Lack of space forces the HERALD to delay the publication of this address.

THE LEVER.

proper, followed. The usual form of court presentations was followed. The presentations were made by Capt. Draynor, A.D.C. and Mr. E. J. Chambers. A very large proportion of those presented, being unaware of the regulations, had neglected to provide themselves with cards and it is impossible to give anything like a full list. The following is a list compiled from the cards handed in:

A. Allan and Mrs. Allan, Rev. Father Andre, O. M. I., Rev. J. F. Settle, Mrs. Betts, Miss Bangs, E. J. Bangs, J. A. Bangs, W. Leigh Bernard and Mrs. Bernard, T. B. Braden, A. D. Braithwaite, Peter McGill Barker, J. L. Bowen, Mrs. Bowen, Rev. A. W. F. Cooper, James F. Child, Mrs. Child, John R. Costigan, J. S. Cowan, E. Doughty and Mrs. Doughty, Miss Dowling, R. F. Drummond, A. J. Ellis, J. S. Feehan, Mrs. Feehan, J. R. Ferguson, Miss Y. M. Goodridge, Mrs. Wm. Herchmer, Rev. J. C. Herdman, Mrs. Herdman, M. Harris, Mrs. Harris, W. R. Hull, R. A. Jones, Mrs. Jones, Miss Jones, A. Kennedy, Mrs. Kennedy, P. W. King, Rev. Father H. Ledue, O. M. I., James A. Loughheed, Mrs. Loughheed, Capt. McIlreath, Mrs. McIlreath, D. W. Marsh, Mrs. Marsh, Alex. McBride, Philip J. Mount, J. Grant McKay, Peter McCarthy, James Mollison, J. T. L. Meyer, Joseph Maw, Wesley F. Orr, Miss Paterson, Miss L. Paterson, Inspector P. C. H. Primrose, N. W. M. P., Samuel Parrish, the Misses Prish, Dr. Pare, Mr. Justice Rouleau, Ainos Rowe, James Reilly, R. A. Rutten, F. B. Stimson, Mrs. Stimson, Inspector Snyder, N. W. M. P., F. G. Smith, J. B. Smith, A. E. Shelton, Miss Wardlaw, Inspector Williams, N. W. M. P., James Walker James Lewellyn Wilson, T. C. West, Mr. Wadsworth, Mr. Wellcome.

While the presentation were being made, the band under the leadership of Band Sergeant Bagley, played some of the best band selections ever heard in Calgary. At intervals, a very choice programme of vocal music was contributed. The singers were Mrs. Doughty, Miss Paterson, Mrs. Feehan and Mr. Wellcome, and it was subject of general remark that these several favorites had never appeared to better advantage. His Honor expressed himself as fairly charmed with the musical portion of the programme, and all those present must have agreed with him. About a quarter to nine, the band struck up "God Save the Queen." His Honor left the reception room and the party dispersed, the male portion generally making a move towards the Windsor Hotel.

THE BANQUET.

The banquet given to His Honor Lieutenant Governor Royal at the Windsor Hotel last night was a success in most respects. The dining room was decorated for the occasion. The menu was a good one. There was plenty of everything, including Carling's ale and choice beverages.

His Worship Mayor Marsh opened the programme with a neat speech, in which he referred to the opportune circumstances of His Honor making his first official visit at a time of the year which is called mid winter, which would enable him to judge correctly of the country and climate as he found it. The toast of the Queen and the Governor General were given in succession by the Mayor and drank amid enthusiastic cheering. The Army, Navy and Mounted Police were next proposed, coupled with the names of Major Walker, Capt. McIlreath and ex-mayor King.

Major Walker said that he was proud as well as every other true Briton of the Army and Navy. He hoped the flag which had braved a thousand years might ever wave over these Western Territories, which would soon contain a population which would outnumber the rest of the Dominion. Coming down to N. W. M. P. matters, he said he had come to the country as a member of that force about fifteen years ago. At that time there were very few white people here and it was no trifling undertaking for a handful of men to penetrate a country almost entirely inhabited by savages and attempt to establish law and order where chaos and paganism were supreme, and to do so without a resort to the use of arms. He looked upon the Mounted Police as the founders of a civilization in these Territories, the beneficial effects of which would be felt by our children's children, when the Territories have become populous provinces. The speaker thought the Police force was one of which the Dominion and one of which he as an expatriate was proud. The Mayor expressed himself as thoroughly pleased to take part in doing honor to the distinguished guest of the evening by whom he had entire confidence that the best interests of the country would be promoted. He felt that with His Honor at Regina and the Hon. E. Dewdney as Minister of the Interior, the stupendous interests in the West would be well looked after. The Mayor sat down amid great applause.

Ex-mayor King and Capt. McIlreath also replied.

We are compelled for want of space to hold the balance of the report over till tomorrow.

OUR TOWN.

Described By a Prominent Eastern Journalist.

In my last letter I promised to make my readers acquainted with some other prominent citizens of Calgary, and to direct their attention, for the last time, to some prominent features of the prairie; and now I find myself sternly confronted by two serious questions, namely—what are the prominent citizens of Calgary, or any other place? and, of the numberless important features of the prairie, what features are to be regarded as the prominent ones, to which a few last words may be most profitably devoted? There are, doubtless, scores of really interesting and important matters connected with the prairie, to which scarcely even an allusion has been made in these papers; and there are also very many prominent men, citizens who have done grand services to the community, whose names have not been mentioned. But the omissions have been unavoidable, not intentional, and no person can regret more than I do that the limited space available would not allow of anything like substantial justice being done to services that have in many cases simply been inculcated. And so it must be here; I must perforce leave many prominent names without even a mention, for here, as we are on the dividing line between the prairie and mountains, it is fitting that whatever seems most important in the general features of the plains should be finally touched upon, however briefly and inadequately.

It would, however, be unfair not to allude to some few of the citizens more directly, and prominence should undoubtedly be given to the enterprising journalists to whose efforts Calgary is so largely indebted for her prosperity and high reputation as an ideal community of the period. Two daily newspapers, the HERALD and the TRIBUNE, each publishing a special weekly edition, are supported by the town and surrounding country; and it must be acknowledged by the most carping fault-finder that the editors and managers of these papers contrive, amid no common difficulties, to supply their patrons with an astonishingly good bill of fare every day. * * * The managing director and editor of the HERALD, is a first class journalist, and will certainly make his paper a veritable power in the land, if energy, enterprise and knowledge of what is wanted can be trusted to accomplish his purpose. The representatives of the people in the Legislative Assembly of the Northwest Territories should also be mentioned. One of these gentlemen, Mr. Cayley, I only saw few minutes, business engagements on his part, and lack of time on mine preventing us from becoming more intimately acquainted; but from his colleague, Mr. John Lineham, I received the most courteous, kindly attention that any man could possibly desire, and, if I should never have the opportunity of thanking that gentleman personally for his many acts of civility, I shall not the less continue to feel obliged for the considerable good nature that did so much to make my visit to Calgary one of the most enjoyable in the whole trip. Mr. Lineham is an ideal type of the better class of our successful Northwest pioneers, and affords an excellent illustration of what may be achieved by a young man of good physical health, with plenty of energy and enterprise to back it up, in the wide field thrown open to the industrious and ambitious in the Territories. About ten years ago he joined the throng of fortune-seekers in Winnipeg, proudly refusing to ask or accept assistance from home and determined to rely upon his own resources for success; he moved west as the country began to be settled and finally reached Calgary, with a large amount of wealth, health and strength and knowledge of the country to help him on to fortune. Here he went in to the horse ranching business, after some trifling experiences in general farming, and in this he has succeeded so well that during the season of 1887 he sold about $11.00 worth of horses from the herd, and expected that the sales for 1888 would reach to nearly $16,000. I saw 320 horses and mares of various ages on his ranch near Calgary, and it would certainly be no easy task to collect the same number of fine looking animals and in as good condition in any other section of the continent. One man, at $40 a month for wages, is able to look after the herd on the range, and the a real rent paid to the Government is two cents per acre, from which data it may readily be inferred that the profits of the horse ranching business are considerable, is the man who undertakes it knows thoroughly what he is about.

It is indeed, highly probable that the breeding of horses will always form a special feature in the agricultural industries of Alberta, second only in importance to cattle raising, for which the country has already become famous. The conditions are all favorable for stock-raising of every kind; there are now, it is estimated, fully 100,000 head of cattle in this one Territory, and the number is steadily on the increase; several large flocks of sheep are kept on the uplands and among the foothills along the base of the Rockies, and these have generally thriven so well that a large increase in their numbers is altogether probable. I have not heard any very close approximation to the number of horses on the various ranches; but the success that has attended the experiments made in this direction fully warrants the expectation that Northwest Canada will be the great horse breeding country of the future. Complaints are almost daily made that it is a matter of the greatest difficulty to procure a sufficient supply of suitable remounts for the cavalry of the British army; but, unless I am greatly mistaken, a very few years will solve the problem, and to Alberta and the adjacent districts will be found a never failing supply-ground for this highly important imperial want. It was hoped at one time that the horses of Eastern Canada would be sufficient for the purpose; but it has been found among other things, that the hoots of the Eastern animal is too tender and brittle to withstand the wear and tear to which the army horse must necessarily be exposed on occasion. The prices offered by the Home Government will not allow the average breeder, either in Great Britain or in the older sections of Canada, to leave the animal long enough unbroken to permit them to arrive at their full growth, and at the full development of feet and other tender parts of their really delicate organization; but the Northwest rancher can well afford to give ample time for the fullest development of all their best qualities, the food and care are not at all expensive, the dry, elastic atmosphere is exactly what is required to keep them in perfect health and strength, and all the other conditions are eminently favorable to the production of an all but ideal breed of horses, vastly superior to any that have heretofore been within reach of the British trooper.

It has sometimes been objected that the climate of our Northwest Territories must be unfavorable to horses, and in a less though still a considerable degree to cattle, on account of their liability to suffer from pneumonia in consequence of the great and sudden changes of the temperature, brought about by the Chinook winds, of which I have given some account in a former letter. But it should be borne in mind that sudden changes are not unhealthy or enervating, much less dangerous, providing that the atmosphere be dry; and this is precisely the condition we have to deal with in the late fall and winter, the season in which the chinooks cause a sudden elevation in the temperature. In discussing the matter before, I omitted indeed I scarcely thought it necessary—to mention the well known fact that the deposit of moisture liberates latent heat and thus raises the temperature; and this no should be taken into account in considering the curious phenomenon of these warm winds in mid-winter, for the latent heat thus set free must amount to a considerable quantity in the immense volume of air crossing the mountains. In summer the greater heat of the mountains, and of the mainland in general, enables the air to retain a much larger volume of moisture than in winter; hence in the chinook belt we have warm moist air in summer and warm dry air in the winter months as favorable a regulation of the atmospheric conditions as could be imagined for the purposes of the breeder of first-class horses and cattle. Horse-ranching pays well now, and it will very probably pay still better in the future, when the possibilities of the country become better known to those engaged in the business, and they ascertain what breeds of animals will be most likely to find ready purchasers at good remunerative prices. I saw some beautiful specimens of thorough-bred Kentucky sires and some very fine brood mares that had been imported from Ireland, and within the last couple of years the Percheron has been growing steadily in favor, the cross between the foreign and the native breeds being apparently as well fitted for general purposes, as it is admittedly gentle and beautiful.

The horse ranches were not, however the only thing I saw under Mr. Lineham's kindly guidance. He also conducted me over miles and miles of cattle ranching, and farming country, the more salient features of which, will be the subject of my next paper.

CALGARY'S COUNCIL.

Held an Important Meeting and Makes a Couple of Appointments.

The regular meeting of the town council took place in the Council Chamber last night at 8 o'clock. His Worship, D. W. Marsh, in the chair. All the members of the council were present. Letters were read from Mr. A. D. Braithwaite, and Charles Watson, offering their services as treasurer of the town for the current year. A letter was read from E. Wood & Co., offering to erect a woolen mill in Calgary, of a capacity to use up one half the present wool product of this district, but the conditions and concessions asked for, the council considered, were such that they could not be complied with, the letter was therefore filed. A letter was read from Mr. G. C. Marsh, offering to take the joint offices of collector and assessor. A letter was received and read from Messrs. Loughheed & McCarthy, solicitors for Mark Cuzner, saying that they would advise their client to settle his claim against the town, and pay his own costs, if the town would pay the sum of $2,500.

Coun. King, chairman of finance, brought in a statement of the town accounts at the beginning of the year. He considered that in order to provide amply for all requirements for the first quarter of the year, it would be necessary to have a by-law passed enabling the council to arrange for borrowing up to $5,000. He explained that it did not follow that there was a deficit of that amount. A by-law was passed authorizing the council to borrow whatever may be required, not exceeding $5,000. The letter of Loughheed & McCarthy re Cuzner case, caused considerable discussion. It was finally moved by the Mayor, seconded by Coun. Orr, that the Mayor and Solicitor be authorized to make a final offer of $2,500 in full of Cuzner's claim and the plaintiff's costs, and that if this amount is not accepted, that the town solicitor be instructed to proceed to appeal to the Supreme Court at Ottawa. This motion was finally agreed to.

Some difference of opinion was expressed as to whether the office of collector and assessor should be combined. It was finally decided to do so. There were only two applications for the joint position. Mr. Charles Sparrow received a majority of the ballot vote, and was declared elected.

Mr. S. Barber, was re-elected treasurer for the current year.

The question of appointing a railway committee of the council, the Mayor read an extract from the by-laws, showing that the committee on Public Works have all railway matters in which the town is interested, under their department.

On reference to appointment of an immigration committee, Coun. Fitzgerald gave notice of a by-law to alter the present by-law No. 84, so as to provide for the appointment of a committee on immigration.

The Mayor made a suggestion that the regular meetings of the Council be held on Tuesday evenings instead of Wednesday. He thought that as there was no mail going east on Tuesday night, the members of the council as business men, would be less occupied on Tuesday, also that the newspaper men, as well as the Postmaster would be freer on Tuesday as both the weekly papers are published on Wednesday.

Coun. Orr said there was another strong reason for making the change, namely, that nearly all the week night religious meetings of the three churches, were held on Wednesday, which prevents the religious part of the community from being present at the council sittings, and what was still worse, prevented Councillors from attending religious meetings. Notice of a by-law to make the change was given. The council then adjourned to meet on Tuesday evening, the 29th inst.

TERRITORIAL.

Small-pox Among the Chippewyan Indians. BATTLEFORD, 25.—It is reported here that small-pox has broken out among the Chippewyan Indians, at Cold Lake, north of Pitt.

The Lethbridge Road.

OTTAWA, 25.—Sir Alex. Galt saw the Minister of the Interior today respecting the affairs of the Galt railway and the proposed extensions to Fort Benton to be pushed forward in the spring.

Desertions From the Force.

REGINA 25.—On Thursday night, a policeman named Wright disappeared, and has not been seen since. On the same night another constable attempted to desert and reached the depot but was too late for the express. He returned to the barracks and next morning received a sentence of six months imprisonment.

THE TELEGRAPHIC.

The Immigration Policy.

LONDON, 25.—The Standard publishes an Ottawa telegram that the Dominion Government owing to the pressure of the Knights of Labor, has decided to adopt a policy of hostility towards emigration forbidding all alien laborers (of course the British are excepted) to enter Canada, and stopping all grants in aid of emigration. Official circles here discredit this statement. The policy of Canada, as understood here, is to discourage unsuitable emigration, but in every possible way stimulate the emigration of the classes of persons that Canada needs. No effort will be spared to carry this out. The result is, as Professor Shaler of the Harvard University states in the Universal Review, Canada is now receiving a better class of emigrants than any other country.

Strained to a Degree.

LONDON, 22.—It is stated upon the authority of a high official in the foreign office that the official relations between Washington and Berlin are already strained to a degree, exciting intense interest and continuous watching among diplomats. The attention of Bismarck, it is asserted has been very sharply called to the treaty between England, Germany, and the United States conferring upon the Samoans the right to elect a king and a government regardless of foreign government's residents or interests. This instrument precludes the possibility of German ascendancy. Bismarck and Salisbury have both been informed that America will uphold the provisions of the treaty at all hazards, and the result has been that an Anglo-American entente has virtually been arranged.

AMERICAN.

SAN FRANCISCO, 21.—Yesterday afternoon the United States man-of-war, Vandalia left Mare Island Navy yard in this harbor bound for the Samoan Islands, the present seat of warlike disturbance.

The Ripper, Again.

NEW YORK, 24.—The Sun says the crews of the various steamers plying between this city and Kingston, Jamaica, are telling fearful stories of crime committed in Spanish Town, a village near Kingston. The first of the series of diabolical and mysterious murders took place, so the sailors say, Nov. 28, 1888, in St. Catherine Parish, a few miles distant from Spanish Town. The victim was a negress of lowest and most vicious class, whose name has never been disclosed. She was found early in the morning lying in a fence corner by the roadside, her throat cut from ear to ear; her cheeks, nose and forehead slashed in a manner that would indicate it to be the work of a skilful butcher. Her clothing had, as in the case of nearly all the Whitechapel murders, been thrown over board, and the little crown which had gathered there upon the discovery of the body were horrified to see that it had been mutilated exactly as had been done in the London cases. If anything further had been needed to make the horrors attributable to the Whitechapel fiend, it was found on a card pinned to the unfortunate woman's body by the blade of a small knife. The card bore this inscription: "Jack the Ripper; fourteen more, then I quit." A diligent search was made for the murderer, but he was not found. On the morning of December 13th, in a field, lying by and partially concealed under an old shed, was found a second body. In this case the woman was a notorious creature of the lowest class, a negress called "Mag." Her wounds were of the same nature as those inflicted upon the other. The authorities made a hurried investigation and buried the body as speedily as possible, giving no one an opportunity to examine it. No mention of the crime was made in the newspapers at the time. The last body was found on Friday before New Year's day.

The Calgary Gas and Water Works Co. acting under instructions from J. C. Keeler, C. E. of Ottawa have commenced a series of tests to ascertain the best location for a supply well for the works. One object seems to be should the direct pumping system be adopted, to have a well placed near enough to, and sunk a depth sufficiently below one of the rivers to secure an inexhaustible supply of water, and at the same time have the gravel between the river and the well, act as a perfect filter. The first of these tests have been made at the foot of McTavish street, near the Bow River.

The Executive Committee of the Calgary Institute, met last evening, and completed arrangements for opening the library and reading room at an early day. Rev. A. W. P. Cooper, submitted a letter he had received from Hon. E. Dewdney. It runs as follows:—"I see by the Calgary Herald, that you are about forming a new Association for the purpose of maintaining a public library at Calgary. When you are in working order will you kindly let me know, in order that I may give directions to have sent to you, government papers, maps, etc., which I think would be of use to the Association. Wishing you every success in your efforts to organize the Calgary Institute."

Yours, etc.,

Thursday.

The continued mild weather has had the effect of raising the water on top of the ice in the Bow and Elbow Rivers.

Mr. T. E. Julian, C. E., having removed to Vancouver, the meteorological office is now in charge of Mr. Harris.

L. P. Wadsworth, inspector of Indian Agencies for the Northwest and his secretary, Mr. D. B. Black, arrived from Regina this morning and are registered at the Royal Hotel.

Mr. A. E. Shelton has received a telegram stating that His Honor Lieutenant-Governor Royal will arrive in Calgary Saturday morning, and leave for Regina Tuesday morning. His Honor arrives at Mosquito Creek tomorrow and will be entertained by the ranchers in that district.

Thos. Jackson has got his skating rink at the railway bridge on the Elbow River very tastefully fixed up. It is fringed all round with evergreens and there is a cozy little place for the ladies to rest in. Also several seats fixed on the ice. If we should get a little cold weather it will make a pleasant out door resort.

Friday.

Prepare your costumes for the great fancy dress carnival, to be held at the Star rink, Feb'y 5, 1889.

Mr. S. Ferland, who returned from a three weeks stay at Lethbridge, yesterday, states that the Galt Railway Company had commenced widening the gauge of their railway between Dunmore and Lethbridge, before he left.

Mr. Newson lost eleven fine Brahman fowls, from his chicken house last night, seven of them were carried away entirely, and the four remains of four were found in the yard, as some of the fowls weighed as much as 10 lbs. It looks as if there must have been a man and a dog engaged in the slaughter.

Saturday.

Agitations are on foot in both Medicine Hat and Lethbridge, to establish public libraries.

J. S. Burnett, V. S., of Regina, has returned from the south and is at the Royal Hotel.

There is every probability that a rink of the Calgary curling club will go to Montreal to participate in the Winter Carnival bonspiel.

Mr. Fred Stinson left town yesterday for the Quorn Ranch, to attend the reception to be tendered His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor by the ranchers of the district.

The Rev. J. F. Belts will deliver the first of his course of lectures on the "Evidences of Christianity," in the Methodist Church tomorrow evening.

Several citizens intend hoisting their flags during the Governor's visit. By all means let the display of bunting be general and give the town as gay an appearance as possible.

The Calgary Gas & Waterworks Company have applied to the Chairman of the Fire, Water and Light Committee for the use of the city steam fire engine for testing their trial wells. The matter will be referred to the full council next Tuesday.

The Band of Alberta Lodge I. O. O. F., was present at the opening of Mr. Thomas Jackson's skating rink on the Elbow River last night. There was a large turn out, a good proportion being ladies. The music was good, the skating good and a good time generally.

The committee of the Calgary Branch of the Upper Canada Bible Society, appointed to select the Bibles and Testaments to be brought in here, met at the Methodist parlour last evening. They will send for about 150 copies, the prices of which will vary from 10 cents up to $1.80. It has been arranged that the Depository shall be at the store of Messrs. Linton Bros.

The dinner at Macleod, to Mr. D. W. Davis, M. P. was a most successful affair. The Lieutenant-Governor, delivered a speech, in which he said he desired to govern according to the wishes of the people as much as the laws of the country would allow. Mr. W. G. Conrad, of Fort Union, Montana, proposed the health of Sir John A. Macdonald. He said that the Government of Canada was the best in the world. He congratulated the Canadians on their constitution and on having in their Premier the greatest statesman on the continent of America.

The committee of the town council on fire, water and light, met at the fire hall at 5 p. m. yesterday, to take up important matters in that department; present, A. Grant, W. F. Orr and Geo. Murdoch. It was expressed as the opinion of the committee that the first duty of the council is to make their first expenditure of the year in still further improving the fire protection service, especially by providing a team to be quartered at the fire hall, exclusively for the use of the town, also to make more sleeping rooms for firemen at the fire hall, and other useful changes.

Monday.

W. C. Wells, of Montreal, proprietor of the Palliser mills in the mountains, is in town.

Capt. J. Draynor, aide de camp to the Lieutenant Governor, is registered at the Royal Hotel.

Lieutenant Governor Royal, Judge and Mrs. Rouleau and Capt. Draynor, aide de camp to the Governor, lunched at the residence of His Worship Mayor Marsh, today.

Mr. A. Ferland returned yesterday morning from a trip to Toronto and Ottawa. He reports the weather much improved down there. At Toronto there is no snow and business generally quiet since the holidays.

The public works committee acting on the old saying that an ounce of preventative is better than a pound of cure, are having a railing put on the sidewalks on Stephen Avenue east of the post office, where there was possible danger of any one going home from a banquet stepping down a distance of four or five feet on a pile of stones.

Mr. A. B. Cowan, of the well known firm of Cowan & Co., Galt, manufacturers of wood working machinery, is in town on his way to the coast. We understand Mr. Cowan will be at the banquet tonight and will leave at 1:10 for the west. He has been asked to respond at the banquet tonight to the toast "The Manufacturing Interests."

Tuesday.

Mr. L. Brooks, the prominent rancher of Pincher Creek, is in the city.

Mr. S. Ogilvie, of Winnipeg, son of Senator Ogilvie, of Montreal is at the Royal.

Veterinary surgeon Burnett, who has been in Calgary several days, went east by this morning's train to Regina.

Mr. A. P. Cowan, of Galt, went west as far as Banff this morning. After visiting the coast, he will return and spend a few days in Calgary.

Among the passengers by this morning's train for the East were Messrs. John Lineham, M. L. A., George Lesson, D. Cameron and H. Collins. All of these gentlemen go as far east as Montreal and take in the Winter Carnival.

Constable Leslie, N. W. M.P., left by this morning's train for Battleford, having been transferred to that post. There were very few people about town who did not know Leslie and he was generally popular.

Retaliation has at last taken place, cold weather is here, but horses and drivers will be protected. A full stock of blankets and robes will be sold at cost price by Murdoch the Pioneer Saddler, Atlantic Avenue, opposite the C. P. R. Freight Sheds. Call and protect horse and man.

Mr. Hugh McClelland went to Cochrane by this morning's train. He has obtained a couple of days leave of absence from the fire department. We will have something pleasant to note about Hugh when he returns. Councillor Grant is in command of the brigade till the chief returns.

A fatal accident occurred at Big Hill, near Field Station on the C. P. R. about one o'clock this morning. It appears one of the mogul engines was helping a freight train down the grade when it became unmanageable. The mogul jumped the rails and is lying 150 yards from the track. The report of particulars are very meagre, but the sad truth has come out that brakeman Phelan was killed and Charles Fiddler, fireman, had both legs taken off. Drs. Lindsay, Brett and Penney were sent up by special to the scene of the accident.

THE GOVERNOR.

Arrives in Calgary The Programme for His Honor's Reception.

At 3:30 Saturday afternoon the Hon. Joseph Royal, Lieut. Governor of the Northwest Territories arrived overland via Fort Macleod, at the residence of his Lordship Judge Rouleau. At 4 p. m., Messrs. A. E. Shelton, W. R. Hall, Dr. Rouleau and the Rev. J. C. Herdman, on behalf of the citizens' committee, proceeded to the Judge's residence to interview His Honor, and learn how much time he would have at his disposal, and what programme of movements would meet with his approval. The committee were graciously received by His Honor, and informed that he would have pleasure in placing his time during his stay entirely at the disposal of the citizens.

The Calgary Institute.

The Calgary Institute has issued a circular explaining the present state of the institution. The circular shows that the house corner of McIntyre Ave. and Osler Street, immediately opposite the Methodist Church, has been plainly fitted up as a library and reading room, and His Honor the Lieut. Governor will be asked to open the institution, upon the occasion of his approaching visit to Calgary. Now that the institute has been practically got into working order, the office bearers and executive committee, feeling the necessity of an effort being made to largely increase the membership and arouse general enthusiasm, have decided to resign their positions to admit of successors being appointed to represent thoroughly the different classes of the membership. A meeting is to be held Thursday evening, the 31st, in the rooms of the institute, for the purpose of electing officers to fill the vacancies vacated by this resolution of the present office bearers; and members and those desirous of becoming members are respectfully invited to be present. The rooms will be open this afternoon from three to six for the purpose of receiving donations of books, etc. The reading room will open in fairly complete order, as the local papers have under taken to supply the reading room with the papers they receive in exchange.

The Star Rink.

His Honor, Lt. Gov. Royal apparently enjoyed his visit to the Star Rink, Saturday evening, very much. He was attended by Captain Draynor, A. D. C., Mr. John Lineham, M. L. A. and A. E. Shelton. The ice was in good condition and the attendance of both skaters and spectators large. His Honor remained for upwards of an hour watching the fun. The Police band performed one of its best programmes and the rink was decorated.

Dr. P. F. Sizemore cast again on the 2nd February. Parties requiring his immediate services would do well to give him a call. He will not be up again until March. See adv. 23-25

STOCK.

Colorado's Scarcity of Grass. Grass on the open plains of Colorado will be very scarce the coming winter, and we believe all efforts to keep the suffering cattle from drifting to the hay stacks and stubble fields of eastern Colorado and western Kansas will be useless. They must go or die. Better let them go and pay the damage than gather their bones in the spring—Field and Farm.

Had for New Mexico Stock Men. ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., 25.—The snow in the mountains and on the plains is reported to be between two and three feet deep and the distress among all kinds of cattle and sheep is great and many are dying. From a stockman it is learned that while he was out hunting cattle he came upon a large drove of antelopes frozen to death, perishing for want of food. A heavy snow storm is raging in the Sandies mountains. Cattlemen fear that the loss will be immense before the snow melts.
